DEDICATION '67

It gives the class of '67 a great deal of pleasure to dedicate our 1967 ACTA, to a very great guy, Mr. Don Knudson. We would like to take this opportunity to thank him for many years of active service to our school and our student body. His support in all of our school activities has truly shown he is a Monarch through and through.

"For he's a jolly good fellow!"

TO A VERY GREAT GUY -- DON KNUDSON

"And if you ever steal my milk carton again, I'll punch you right in the nose."

Thirteen years of back-to-school nights and he's still smiling.

The largest detention class in the history of E.U.H.S.

CURRICULUM

DIRECTOR OF GUIDANCE

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR SUPERINTENDENT

I believe your experience will be that of others who have graduated before you. You will come to appreciate the high school days more and more as the years go by. As you leave Exeter High we wish you success in business or profession, joy in daily living and contentment in life. Your achievements will be a constant source of pride to us. Congratulations!

In preparing for the future you may adopt, in all seriousness, the advice on a road sign observed by a certain tourist who had been forced to detour on an unimproved road. He came upon this notice: "Choose well your rut, for you may be in it a long time". Make a wise choice!

Steve Bryan leads the way as Dick Pully sweeps around the end.

- SPIRIT OF '67

This year, our varsity team finished the season with a fine 7-3 record. We started with victories over Orono and our arch rival, Lindsay, with scores of 20-19 and 20-12. We then whipped Woodlake everywhere except the scoreboard and lost 25-13. We then came back with three straight impressive victories over Redwood, Whitney, and Dinuba.

We made the long grueling trip to Coalinga only to lose to the Horned toads. We returned to Exeter to put down the scrappy Seraphim Spartans, 27-13. The only afternoon game of the season proved to be too much for the Monarchs as we lost to Kingsburg on the Viking field. For our final game we drubbed the Fowler Red-Cats 41-14.

The Fowler game concluded one of the finest seasons for the Monarchs in ten years as they tied the record (for the last ten years) for most victories in one season set by the 1963 team.

Coaches Swanson and McGeehan watch as Coach Allard gives out orders.

FUTURE LOOKS BRIGHT AS TENNIS HAS BEST START

The 1967 tennis team is one of the largest in many years. It is also the youngest team on campus according to the age of most of its players. Only seven of the thirty-six member team will graduate this year.

The team got off to a good start by defeating Woodlake and Strathmore, and, as the ACTA was rushed to the printer, it looked like a good season coming up.

THE COACH'S REVIEW OF THE SEASON

The Wrestling Monarchs, 10-5 for the season, opened their season with 5 practice matches. After dumping their first foe, Tulare Union 39-19, the Holman resorts to violent methods.

Monarchs experienced defeat in the next three matches, losing to Whitney 28-17, Coconino 31-14, and to Redwood 40-8. Regrouping, the Monarchs came alive to pin Bullard at Fresno 32-23.

In League action the Monarch grappler came on strong to defeat Woodlake 34-21, and Laton 54-6. Kingsburg put the Monarchs back a step by trimming them 38-16.

The Monarchs opened the second round in league actions by dumping Woodlake 40-16. Southmore was next to feel the Monarch's grip, going down 59-3. Dinuba came on strong, only to get edged out 29-27. Kingsburg again set the Monarch's back 40-13. Recovering from Kingsburg, the Monarch's reserves rolled pass Laton's Varsity 44-13.

In tournament action the Monarchs won a landslide victory in the League novice tournament, placed second in the League tournament, and placed 5th in the 17 Team Central Divisional Tournament.

Dale Wurmsmich compiled the best dual meet record, going undefeated in 13 matches. Dale won the League at 165, placed 3rd in the Divisional, and 4th in the Valley.

Gary Coker compiled a respectable record at 12-1, losing only to Dinuba when he wrestled at weight at 120.

Billy Ward, a strong 95 pounder, recorded a 12-2 dual meet.

Ed Maurer, voted most valuable by the coaches, came on strong to compile an 8-4 record. Tom Ogas did a good job at 138. Tom was 9-4. Freshman Rex Caville did an excellent job at 103. Rex went undefeated in League until the last match.

Along with other varsity members Chuck Prater, Mike Hughes, Dave Griggs, Chuck Knox and Mike Journey, the team is well rounded with experience and young players.

The league appears tough this year, but under the able assistance of Coaches Simpson and Allied, and if the Monarchs hustle and defeat Kingsburg, a league championship is a strong possibility.

This year the Exeter High swimmers, under the leadership of Mr. McGregor and Mrs. Mangini, have already broken many existing school records.

Contributing to this, in Varsity competition was Jeff Wirth in the 50 yd. free style with a time of 24.4. Two new diving records have also been set; in boys 'B' class Billy Ward with a total of 127 points, in girls class Nancy Knapp with a total of 129 points.

It looks like many other school records will be broken by the end of the season.

MORE MONEY IN '67

A Message From Eric

After reviewing the past school year, I feel I can say it has been a successful one. Not through my efforts as student body president, but through the efforts of the faculty, the administration, and the student body which make Easter High the fine school it is.

I must say that I feel greatly relieved at having finished a job and at having completed my high school career. Both of these pursuits were made much easier for me by the help I received from our administration and my fellow student body officers. I owe a special debt of gratitude to Mr. Heath for the help and support he has given me through the past year.

My four years at E.U.H.S. have been prosperous ones, and I want to encourage all present and future students of Easter High to take advantage of the opportunities offered by the school, and to contribute to the school in order that it may continue to improve and thereby, improve the quality of the students it produces.

The students are the school.

Best Wishes

Eric Wright Jr.

THE BIG THREE

Linda Stevens, Business Manager; Joe Mendosa, Managing Editor; Victor Nordstrom, Acta Editor.

To produce a great Acta was the aim of the 1967 Acta staff. This had to be the best book ever. There were ads to sell, pictures to take, captions to write, layouts to plan and a lot of proof reading to be done before the final copy could be mailed.

In addition to the yearbook this year's staff was able to produce its first printed paper, thanks to student body funds. Next year we hope to have funds available for more than three issues.

Even though Victor Howell doesn't appear on this page, he has now completed his third year as dark room assistant to Mr. Simpson, our photographer and advisor.

FUTURE FARMERS CHOSE SAUNDRA AS SWEETHEART

"I told you not to drop those dice in the sand."

Nineteen hundred sixty-seven was a very active year for the Future Farmers of America. With the Tulare County Fair contests, judging contests, hayrides and Wednesday night meetings, the F.F.A. has managed to keep themselves very busy. During the Wednesday night meetings, the entertainment has consisted of gory traffic accident movies, and refreshments, refreshments, refreshments.

Again this year they operated a booth at the football games which proved very successful. Because of the large number of green-hands initiated this year, the Future Farmers of America are looking forward to a very prosperous club in the future.

HOME MAKING CAN BE FUN AND WORK

Activities started early this year for F.H.A. and continued to keep the club busy throughout the year. It all began when the newly installed officers attended an officers training meeting in Hanford and came back with new ideas for the club. A Christmas party, selling cookbooks and candles, donating toys and clothes to needy families at Christmas, and taking second place in the Homecoming car decorations highlighted their achievements.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS

It really takes skill to type with your eyes closed. It must be a trick.

Monarch megaphones were sold during the year and a trip to Four Cs Business College was also included in the activities.

The Art Club was very active this year. Under the supervision of Mr. Zlataroff and Mr. Richardson the members started a campus decorating program. This program was directed toward the beautification of the school trash cans.

Art Club also placed second in the talent show behind Block "E". Both skits provided many laughs.

ACTIVE HEALTH CLUB COMPLETES TWO PROJECTS

The members of the Health Club, under the direction of Mrs. Bingham, have donated their time on two major projects this year.

They painted and repaired the football concession stand and devoted many hours to helping others at the Ester Memorial Hospital.

Although one of the smaller organizations on campus, the active members learned a great deal and enjoyed themselves at the same time.

Pep Club consists of the yell leaders and pom-pom girls who are chosen to help promote school spirit. The yell leaders have been outstanding and they have done an excellent job of building school spirit. The pom-pom girls went to San Francisco this year to compete against 36 different schools. They came home with a trophy for being third in their division. These girls have done a tremendous job, and E.U.H.S. should be very proud of them.

Exeter Union High School vocal music, sometimes roughly known as Ma's Mob, takes an active part in campus and community life.

Outstanding occasions in music this year for Choir members were: the new sweatshirts; the recently organized vocal ensemble—The Chancellors; performing down town with Santa Claus, for the Lions Club, Kiwanis Club, and the V.F.W.

Other performances included: Tulare Fine Arts Festival; Los Angeles Opera Production—Die Fledermaus; California Music Educators Festival; and the Spring Concert.

Performing groups are: The Chancellors, Select Choir; Honor Choir; and the Girls Chorus, directed by Mrs. Virginia Haydu and accompanied by Nancy Sexton.

Cathy Myers, chairman of Homecoming, and her co-chairmen, Gretchen Schmidt, planned an exciting two days for our activities this year. Thursday, October 20, was the beginning of our 1966 Homecoming. That night our boogie chairman, Steve Dunn, led the Mighty Monarchs a roaring boogie. Before this warm event, all the kids met at Joyce Park for a "Snake Dance". We all held hands and "wiggled" our way through rows and then on to the boogie.

On Friday, October 21, Homecoming Day, our assembly chairman, Patsy Mangini, and helpers changed the auditorium into a beautiful place in which to hold the '66 Homecoming assembly. Mr. "Shakey" Smith was our Master of Ceremonies for this event.

A pep assembly was held at 2:00 and the Sophomores put on a stir depicting our Homecoming victory over the Duval's Emperors following the pep assembly, a parade, led by the pep band, was held down town.

The candidates in their decorated cars and class floats participated and were judged during the parade.

Then came the big night. At half-time, each girl was introduced and given a yellow rose. The class floats were shown and the Freshman class won. The winning cars were announced as FFA, first; FFA, second; Block E, third. The 1966 Homecoming queen was announced as Dru Reynolds, sponsored by Block E, with her two princesses, Cathy Myers, sponsored by Rally Club, and Karen Ellis, sponsored by Wrestling Club. The night was topped off by a 18-11 victory over Duval.

We all went to the Homecoming dance sponsored by the G.A.A., and danced to the music of the "Lanatics". Everyone went home at midnight with fond memories of a great day and a wonderful Homecoming '66.

... the big day ...

"Don't be afraid. Just hang on tight and I'll protect you!"

"Shake 'em up, Shakey!"

"Don't look so scared, Chi Chi. It's her they're lookin' at, not you!"

"If I can grab a couple of 'em going on next!"

Clockwise: Wendy Durrant, Yrdie Matheson, Greg Padgett, Bob Smith, Bill Valentine.

BODY PLAY

Our Student Body Play this year, "Erasmus with Freckles", was a great success. The kids participating on stage worked long and hard, and deserved all the recognition they received. There were many small parts but they were considered just as important as the longer ones.

A lot of appreciation goes to our back stage manager, Terry Anderson, who kept us and our props in shape. Most important of all, Mr. Simpson put in a lot of time and effort with us and we proved our thanks by presenting him with a sweater after the curtain call of our big performance.

First Row: Harlene Pendergrass, Martha Evans, Lynn Jakes, Cathie Fisher. Second Row: Kathy Byler, Joe Marshall, Betty Smith, Caroline Fisher.

"HEAVEN CAN WAIT" FOR THE CLASS OF '67

The ladies were Cindy Julek, Karen Ellis, Carol Hadley, Linda Farrisville, Barbara Tanner, Larry Miller.

Two days before the big show the director, Mr. Simpson, was ready to leave for South America but as usual the seniors came through at the last minute. One of the largest crowds in the last few years seemed to enjoy the unusual situation which developed in "Heaven Can Wait". John Elliot had an especially long and difficult part and came through with a fine performance. He was supported by a cast of 50 happy "carefree" seniors.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson help Lilly with her make-up.

Joe Mendoza - Burton Fisher.

"Percy, is that a new wrestling hold?"

Domestic help consisted of Caroline Fisher, Joyce King and Bev Hawksworth.

The three "Heavenly" messengers were Vickie Nordham, Denise Crow, and Patty Margini.

"Gee, John, you need a shirt."

Rick Brown looks uncomfortable surrounded by three girls - Lori Gannon, Denise Crow and Cindy Meyer.

John Elliot looks puzzled as Paul Warronick, Joe Ferrara, Greg Crosson, and Larry Moore look on.

Richard Rodriguez looks on as John studies.

"But John, I assure you—you are in Heaven."

Other ladies were Joe Mendoza, Mike Rin, Judy Caddell, Cheryl and Larry Moore.

EDITOR '67

Hi,

This is your 1967 Acta Editor with some words of thanks for some very important people.

Many thanks go to the merchants whose advertisements have helped bring this book to you.

Mr. Zlataroff and Mr. Richardson were always ready and willing when we needed help. Many thanks go to them.

Thanks to Mr. Simpson for all the time and advice he has given to the Acta staff and myself.

The Acta staff, as a whole, has put a lot of time and effort into this annual and we hope you all enjoy it. Many thanks to the whole staff.

Sincerely,
