Welcome To Monarch Football '71

In spite of the hot weather the players and coaches have been working hard to prepare for this football season. Their long hours of work will provide plenty of thrills for the most loyal fans in the world . . . Monarch fans.

All of us who have anything to do with the Exeter High Athletic program appreciate your continued support.

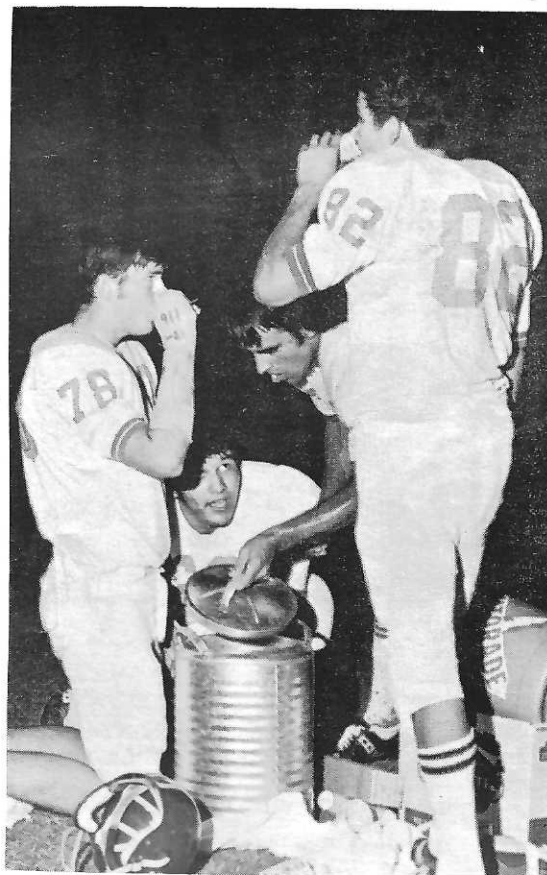

BILL MCGREGOR
Director of Athletics

Varsity coaches Larry Allred, Don Brooks and Manny Kouklis are smiling as if they know what Jim Fuller, the new team trainer, is watching.

It takes plenty of ice and Gatorade for thirsty Monarchs.

BEST OF LUCK, MONARCHS

IN CASE YOU TUNED IN LATE . . .

By Henry Simpson

The season must have started too soon for the Varsity. In spite of plenty of hard work the "Big Blue" just wasn't ready to play football and lost, 12 to 7 to Orosi.

Junior Varsity football got off to a better start with a 22-0 win over Orosi but the "Little Monarchs" really let down and lost to Woodlake, 20-14.

Varsity spirits and confidence took a giant step straight up when the Monarchs came alive and stomped the Woodlake Tigers, 31-16.

Sharp defensive play limited the Tigers to minus 12 on the ground and although the Tigers gained 163 through the air, the Monarchs intercepted four important passes.

As usual the Monarchs had too much for Strathmore and won 29-3. The JV's won easily, 30-6.

Western fans were giving points and betting against the Monarchs. Several Exeter fans will be enjoying free meals. The Monarchs played their best game and won a dandy ball game, 14-12.

The Junior Varsity had a bad night, 0-24, at Tulare but they came alive and dumped Porterville, 20-16.

Varsity fans should have stayed home last week. The 0-0 Porterville game left a bad taste.

Memories are made of this. The Monarchs have something to talk about from now on. The Varsity surprised Coalinga with their skill and "extra" effort, 35-6.

The Junior Varsity had perhaps their finest hour as they refused to give up and defeated a fine Coalinga squad, 26-24.

The Monarchs suffered a big let down and lost to Kingsburg 7-34. A stubborn squad of Little Monarchs held on for a 20-18 win over Kingsburg and remained in the league lead.

In Corcoran the Varsity overcame their own errors and pulled out a win, 14-12. Although hampered by injuries, the JV's dominated Corcoran, 28-14.

The biggest game of the season and perhaps the roughest game in many years was played in Lindsay. The Monarchs really punished the Cardinals but could not overcome their own errors and lost, 12-17. It took a last minute miracle to save a victory for the Little Monarchs but they pulled it, 12-6.

Tonight many fine young men will play their last high school game of football. For several seniors this will be the end of their football forever, but they all have something that cannot be taken away. They have memories. Through the years the bad moments and the good will blend together to form the basis for many pleasant talks with old friends in the fall of the year.

The coaches can be justly proud of the job they have done this season. They have worked hard to overcome many difficulties. Sometime it must seem that all of their efforts are not really appreciated but I am not alone in my feelings that they are the most underpaid group in the world.

If they didn't really love the game and their associations with their players they couldn't give their effort and time so unselfishly. Take a few minutes tonight or next week to let them know how you feel. And don't forget a special thanks to Jim Fuller, the fine Monarch trainer.

JIM FULLER, Team Trainer
